

Summer 2016 newsletter

Welcome to our latest newsletter with information about past events and future dates.

Broneirion in Llandinam is set in 4 acres of well-maintained grounds with stunning views of the Severn Valley. Originally built by Wales leading Victorian Industrialist, David Davies, in 1864. Girlguiding Cymru moved into Broneirion in 1947 and have used it as their headquarters providing facilities for Women and Girls across Wales ever since.

To support Girlguiding Cymru, Broneirion is used commercially by many local businesses, charities, individuals, community groups and schools utilising our facilities and expertise. Broneirion offers a stunning location for conferences, team building, celebrations, children's birthday parties, school trips, residential stays, afternoon teas, mid-week meals and children's holiday clubs as well as the 1000's of Guiders who visit every year. It is also a breath-taking setting for weddings which we hold a full license for or you can hire the house or Lodge for a catered or self-catered holiday.

In June Broneirion hosted our first open air production of Shakespeare A Winter's Tale performed by The Willow Globe Company. Whilst the weather was not on our side the evening was a great success and the Bear was wonderful. We look forward to welcoming the Willow Globe back in 2017 for their next performance.

Goldilocks Grandma also visited Broneirion in June for lots of craft and Storytime fun for preschool aged children.

the war was Miss Rosa Ward from Denbigh Guides? Girlguiding Cymru has certainly been at the forefront of changing society. The exhibition is open until September.

Preparation is in full swing for the Broneirion Summer Holiday this August with day trips to The Sculpture Museum in Berriew, Dolphin spotting in New Quay and Abbey Cwm Hir Hall plus an evening of Shakespeare with the Willow Globe.

With the lovely weather we have been having recently it seems crazy but we are already starting work on Winter Wonderland which this year will be on the 2nd December and promises to be bigger and better

We are also taking bookings for our Count Down to Christmas holiday from 14th - 18th November celebrating all things Christmas. You can decorate your Christmas cake, make wicker decorations, take part in glass workshops and card making plus lots more.

We run our Holiday Activity days during every school holiday with 3 lined up for the summer holidays. On August the 2nd and 4th we are thrilled to welcome Ultim8 Warriors to Broneirion for 2 energetic days for 4 - 13 year olds taking part in assault courses, warrior games based around tribes and lots more. Also happening this summer is our Arty Fun day on August 8th, these days give all children the chance to utilize Girlguiding Cymru fabulous facilities.

We are also hosting the ever popular Sports Camps for members of Guiding over the summer holidays.

Girlguiding Cymru's exhibition 'Pushing Boundaries' is proving very popular at Aberystwyth National Library of Wales. A journey through the last 100 years+ of Guiding in Wales showing how Guiding members have always been at the leading edge providing girls and women exciting adventures including social action across the Principality and beyond. Did you know that one of the first people into the German concentration camps at the end of Broneirion are now offering afternoon teas and mid-week lunches which can be booked through the office. Full details are on our website and Facebook page.

We are delighted to welcome visitors to Broneirion whatever your reason to visit, once you have been it's almost impossible to resist coming back. Further details of all planned events are available on our website & Facebook page.
